

Thank you for your recent request concerning the consent for copyright of the photographs taken aboard your recent Carnival Cruise.

Consent is hereby given for the limited reproduction, as set forth herein, of photographs taken of former passengers of Carnival Cruise Lines by a photographer employed by Carnival. The photos have been purchased by such passengers from Carnival Cruise Lines as mementos of their cruise.

The Photos contain certain registered trademarks owned by Carnival, including without limitation "Carnival," "Carnival Cruise Lines," "the Fun Ships," the Reverse-C Logo Design, and the Ship Funnel Design. For that reason and to preserve Carnival's copyright in the Photos, the reproductions of the Photos may only be used for the purpose of incorporation into a gift memento to each such passenger, such as a calendar, a computer mouse pad, or the like. The Photos may not be used in flyers or other printed material or on items intended for distribution or sale. If the Photos are scanned into your computer system in order to accomplish approved reproduction services, you are required as a condition of this consent to ensure that the Photos are removed from your system promptly after approved use.

Please feel free to contact our Photo Department at 1-800-CARNIVAL if you have any questions regarding this consent.

Cordially,

Carnival Cruise Lines
